STANTON.

Mr. Ross Hall made a flying trip to Jackson last Saturday on business.

Rev. D. G. Combs, of Morehead, will preach at the Christian church this Sunday.

Mrs. J. D. Lucas' mother returned to her former home in Lee county Saturday.

Uncle Jim Holman, of Bowen, was a visitor to our town Monday of this week.

Prof. Earle Sleeth preached at Camp-ton Junction this past Sunday. He goes there once a month.

The students will have their literary exercises at the college Friday night of this week. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Margaret Vance returned home Sunday from a visit to her friend, Mrs. Russell in Montgomery county.

Miss Carver returned from her home in Tennessee Saturday and has resumed her classes at the college.

Mrs. J. C. Hanley has been on the sick list for several days this week but is able to be around again.

Mrs. Bennie Hardwick returned from a prolonged stay at the home of her son, J. H. Hardwick, of Winchester.

Mrs. Sis Hall and her mother, who have both been sick, are much better at this writing. Mrs. Rose is rather poorly yet.

Mrs. Emerine Estes and son, of Garrard county, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tilford Abner several days last week.

Mr. Thomas Patton and Mrs. Celia Coomer, of Mt. Caanan, were married by the writer Tuesday of this week. Both have been through the ordeal before but had lost their helpmates.

The mens class of the Christian church will give a banquet to the whole Sunday School Saturday night of this week at the Court House. Anyone not a member of any Sunday School class in Stanton is invited.

The infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Benningfield, of Morris Creek, died Thursday last week of pneumonia. It was twelve days old. Burial took place in the Stanton cemetery.

Mr. Burris, who has tended to the Johnson farm on Hatton creek for several years, has moved to Henry Derickson's farm that he recently purchased of the heirs of Mrs. Welch.

Mrs. Henry Tipton returned Tuesday from a visit to Nada. She brought with her her twin nieces, Anna and Alice Hanks, aged five years old. They are very bright little girls. Their mother died a few months ago and Mrs. Tipton will care for them as long as they will stay.

Mr. Rodman, of Mt. Sterling, has taken charge of the Phillips-Stone Co. store and it is being invoiced. Mr. A. T. Stewart is assisting in the invoicing. Creditors will probably be paid in full when settlement is made.

Misses Anna and Gladys Welch entertained a number of their friends Saturday evening and all report a most pleasant time. Those present were; Misses Minnie Conlee, Nora Martin, Maude and Lillie Boone, Messrs. Robert and Clay Conlee, Walter Thacker and Chas. N. Crowe.

Mrs. Ellen McKinney, of Clay City, who has been visiting in Winchester for the past week, came on up to Stanton Saturday to visit with the families of J. F. Ware and Lennie Crowe. Lennie is able to walk out of the house now and is doing fine.

The Farmers' Get Together Meeting at the college Saturday was a splendid thing. It was too bad that the day was so bad and stormy for it kept many away who would have otherwise been there. This move, on the part of Prof. Sleeth and the college to help the farmers of Powell understand the fertilizing of the soil, is to be commended. Prof. McDonald, of State University, gave an address on fruit raising, and at night illustrated it with a stereoscopic lecture. Prof. Roberts, also of the same place, gave an address on the liming of soil and illustrated his with the same outfit. Prof. McDonald gave a demonstration of pruning an apple tree in the yard of the college dormitory. We hope these gentlemen will be invited back again when the weather is fairer and a larger crowd can be present. If there is one thing we need here it is how to treat our soil and this section of Kentucky is fine for fruit raising.

It is still more gratifying at the demand that has been made for the resolutions that were passed at the recent mass meeting on behalf of the college. The writer is sending them to different parts of the county at the request of those interested in this splendid college we have here. As this matter affects every citizen of Powell county it is well that they understand what this action means that has been brought against the college. It seems that there are many outside the town of Stanton that do not know why this action has been brought and why the mass meeting was called. Mr. Vernon and Louis Faulkner and Mr. James Williams have brought an injunction against the college prohibiting it from receiving the state money to be used for the paying of teachers. They allege that it is a violation of the law to do so. The

OLD VETERAN DIES.

Maj. A. T. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, a Civil War veteran, and one of the best known Republicans in the State, died last Wednesday. Major Wood was eighty years of age, and had lived in Mt. Sterling since the close of the war. He was prominent in politics, and several times received the party nomination for various offices. He is survived by two sons, Jas. H. Wood and W. Hoffman Wood, of Mt. Sterling, and one daughter, Mrs. G. N. Cox, of Camargo.

It is understood that the large plant of Mowbray and Robinson at Quicksand will be in operation about March. This plant will furnish employment for between 75 and 100 men.

An offer of $200 reward for the arrest of each and every person who took part in dynamiting the courthouse at Irvine, Estill county, January 22, was made this week by Governor McCreary.

friends of the college allege that it is not a violation as arrangements were made with the State Superintendent of Education to carry on the present arrangements. There is no high school in Powell county. But we have all the advantages and more in Stanton college which give to our students a better training than any high school can give or would give in Powell county. The school trustees hire the teachers that teach in the college. Any student in the county can come here and receive a high school training. With this college building we are saved the heavy expense of building a high school building which would cost at least $20,000 under the new requirements. As the Board at Pittsburg sends in $600 every month we are saved that added expense toward paying teachers. What is sent here every year amounts to about $6,000. Powell county does not have to pay that nor does she have to pay the salary of only two teachers. The Board at Pittsburg pays the others. Powell county does not have to hire a janitor nor keep up an expensive high school building. We are saved all this by having this splendid college in our county. But for the college the people of Powell county would have to build a new high school building and employ all the teachers. Every citizen in the county would have to be taxed to build this building and to support it. It is doubtless that at any time there would be over twenty-five or thirty students that would want high school work. For those few students we would have to maintain an expensive equipment. With the college we can send our students there and receive a better training than what a high school in Powell county would give. This is done with the approval of the State Superintendent of Education of Kentucky. Powell county is heavily in debt. She is not able at this time to build a new high school building. At the present time the tax payers pay a 20 cent tax for education but if a new high school building has got to be constructed they would have to be taxed higher to do so. And those who are opposed to our college would be the last persons who want to pay that increased tax. The persons who brought this action have not been interested in a high school but for other reasons, mostly personal grievances against the college, they want to force this action. Because they have a grievance against the college they want the rest of the citizens of Powell county to suffer. If it were not for these personal grievances the citizens of Stanton and Powell county would look at this in a different light but they do not want the college to suffer when it is doing such a splendid work and answers every requirement of a high school.

TOWN BOARD MEETS

The town board held their regular meeting Saturday night, and after the transaction of routine business, the question of the collection of back taxes came up. Assessor Woolery handed in a list of those refusing to be assessed that scarcely left enough men in town to form a Board of Supervisors, and Tax Collector Eaton reported tax money as coming very slowly. After a short discussion Mr. Eaton was instructed to go right after the delinquents, and see they paid up at once, and take such action as he deemed necessary to collect all past due taxes.

Some of those reported as refusing to be assessed were present at the meeting and stated their reasons for so refusing. Others declared that they had not refused, but had not been called on. The following men were appointed to the Board of Supervisors, and will meet at an early date to go over the tax lists: Dr. Wm. C. Martin, John Potts and Henry Waldron.

Another matter that came up for discussion was the license fee of $300 imposed on soft drink stands. This ordinance has been violated since it came into effect of January 1, and it was urged that it either be enforced or rescinded. It was finally decided to offer to take a stated case to the Circuit Judge for decision, and in the meantime to allow the sale to continue. It was decided that if this method was not satisfactory to those violating the ordinance, a warrant would be taken out for the offenders, and the case would be tried as once.

BURIED AT WINCHESTER.

Morgan Lee Morton, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Morton, of Ford, died at the home of his parents Saturday night. The burial took place at Winchester cemetery Tuesday afternoon. The young man had been ill for the past two months of typhoid and pneumonia. He was related to many Powell county people, his mother having been Miss Eva Mastin, of Waltersville, before her marriage.

TRAFFIC DELAYED.

It is very uncertain as to when the new line between Winchester and Irvine will be open for traffic. Serious landslides are interfering with the plans of the Louisville and Nashville Company, and freight traffic is greatly delayed. It is possible that the line will not be open for passenger trains before late spring or mid-summer. A few days ago a freight train was partially buried by a slide, and several smaller slides have occurred.

DIES IN INDIANA.

Carl Blanton, the eighteen-year-old son of H. K. Blanton, of Kimbrell, who was operated on at Indianapolis, Ind., about three months ago, for appendicitis, died at Bristow, Ind., last week and his father has gone there.

TO RUN FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Mr. J. W. Woolery announces in this issue of The Times that he will make the race for the Democratic nomination as Representative from this district. Mr. Woolery is one of the best known citizens of Powell county, and also has many relatives in Estill. He is a strong Democrat, who has always been for the party, and is deserving of support. He will make a thorough canvass of the district, and solicits the support of every voter. At present Mr. Woolery is finishing up his duties as city assessor, and will commence his active campaign very shortly.

ANOTHER PAPER FOR JACKSON.

C. C. Stamper, of Wolfe county, assistant clerk at the Reformatory, resigned, effective Feb. 10th. He and his father have bought the Campton Courier and will move the plant to Jackson. Mr. Stamper was clerk at the reformatory under the former board. It is to be hoped that the new paper will meet with better support than has been accorded some others in the past. Jackson is a one-paper town, and can hardly be expected to support more than the present one.

At the town board meeting Saturday night it was stated by the tax collector that a large number were in arrears with their taxes and refused to pay. The Board immediately gave him instruction to proceed and collect even if it were necessary to levy and sell, and this will be done at once. The Board is in a position where they must have money to run the town, and those who have been "getting by" without the payment of taxes will get a jolt when the collector levies on them. Many good citizens are ready and willing to pay their taxes but object to doing so when they see others passing it up year after year and refusing to pay. If one is entitled to pay, so is another, and there should be no discrimination. The town needs the money and must have it to pay expenses. The members of the board are to be complimented on their hearty endorsement of the plan to enforce the collection of the taxes.

It has just been discovered that there was an error in the law regarding the punishment of misdemeanor cases, and that a clause intended to read "The jury shall fix the penalty in misdemeanor cases" was printed "The judge shall fix the penalty." The law was revised by the last General Assembly, and since that time hundreds of cases have been tried and sentences pronounced by various judges instead of by juries. That such an error could remain for such a time undiscovered is remarkable, and it will probably bring about much more litigation, among those at present serving sentences under the law. This is only another sample of some of the poor business ability of the recent Assembly, whose errors of omission and commission are too many to enumerate.

Beckham paid from $2 to $5 for votes, according to John Keathley, a Beckham worker in Pike county, in the State-wide primary last August, who testified in the vote-selling cases now being tried by Judge J. Wright for some time, failed to appreciate the generosity and kindness of a hospitable home, so bundled up her clothes and ran away from this good home last week, going to Paris. Mrs. Wright, when she first discovered her absence, was most frantic until she saw the unmistakable signs that her elopement was purposely planned.
